

Thousands of tropical free-flying butterflies fill the rainforest exhibit. Margaret Butschler

Dive Show – Pacific Canada Pavilion. Hans Sipma Photography

Our Marine Mammal Rescue Centre treats and releases sick and injured animals. Ron Sangha

Be sure to visit the caimans in the Graham Amazon Gallery. Margaret Butschler

Ask about our Sea otter trainer tours. Margaret Butschler

The Wild Coast features dolphins, sea lions, seals and more. Ron Sangha

Triggerfish in the Tropic Zone. Margaret Butschler

Steller sea lion, Wild Coast Exhibit. Hans Sipma Photography

Beluga Encounter Program. Hans Sipma Photography

Two-toed sloth, Amazon Gallery, Vancouver Aquarium. Alan Taylor

Sleepovers: see the Aquarium after dark. Ross den Otter

Marmosets, the Amazon Gallery's newest inhabitants are the world's smallest true monkey. Margaret Butschler

Boy with Steller sea lion. Steven A. Smith

Pacific white-sided dolphins. Margaret Butschler

Boy with sharks, Tropic Zone. Hans Sipma Photography

Giant Pacific Octopus, Treasures of the BC Coast. Noel Hendrickson

These images are for the sole purpose of representing the Vancouver Aquarium, and must be credited accordingly. Any other use is strictly prohibited. For images, please call 604-659-3516, or email publicrelations@vanaqua.org.